November 2020

Dear parents and carers,

I hope you enjoy reading our prospectus. I know it is not the same as being able to visit the school but unfortunately due to the current restrictions we are unable to have open days as we would normally do. Hopefully it will give you an overview of the school and you have already had a chance to talk about the school with other parents who already have children at the school.

As a new head I have been incredibly impressed by the commitment of the staff to ensure that the children are in an environment where they are happy, as well as develop in all areas including emotionally and socially. This was reinforced when last week when a parent of a child that was new to our school in September, who hadn't been to Cupernham Infant School came to describe the difference the school had made. They were so pleased with their decision to come to the school, and even at this difficult time their child was thriving at the school, in so many ways. That is what I want to for you as parents and carers, a school where all children thrive due to the fantastic relationships, the high quality of teaching, a rich and varied curriculum and a determination to get to know your children really well.

I will be running a meeting on Zoom for perspective parents on Wednesday 2nd December at 7.00. The meeting will last about half an hour. I will briefly describe my vision for the school, the school's key strengths and then give you time to be able to ask any questions. The code for the meeting will be sent as a text/email about an hour before the meeting,

I hope that many of you are able to attend. If there are other parents that might want to find out more about our school, please can you ask them to contact the office so that they can get a prospectus and join the meeting.

Best wishes,

Simon Mitchell-Innes
