

RE – Happy and Sad

Overview: In this RE topic you will think about what it means to be happy and sad. You will read the Easter story and identify happy and sad parts of the story. You will think about why these happy and sad moment are important to many Christians. You will then consider happy and sad moments in your own life.

What I already know...

- Jesus is an important person to many Christians.
- That Jesus is the son of God.
- That Jesus died and came back to life.

Relevant significant Christian stories:

The Easter Story

By the end of this unit...

you will be able to:

1. Inquire: recognise what being sad and happy means
2. Contextualise: recognise ways in which Christians remember sad and happy at Easter
3. Evaluate: recognise the value of remembering sad and happy parts of the Easter story for Christians.
4. Communicate: express your responses to sad and happy
5. Apply: recognise how your responses to sad and happy relate to their own lives

Key Vocabulary

Easter	Resurrection	Jesus
Christians	Emotions	Judas
Sad	feelings	Happy

Key Questions

- What different emotions might you feel?
- What makes you feel happy or sad?
- What happens in the Easter story?
- How might some Christians feel about different parts of the Easter story? Why?